That seems kind of petty. Then what?

Well I watch a lot of Hollywood movie destruction scenes and that makes me really happy. But when Knights give me cash I also enjoy walking around and handing it out to the poor and downtrodden. I once found a man in Waikiki who was asleep on the side walk with only a few of his finger left. I slipped a 20 in them so he could smile when he woke up. I also like helping elderly people. I enjoy driving them to get their groceries and assisting them. Doing the heavy carrying etc.

Quoting: Anonymous Coward 17835662

that is nice of you

Quoting: Anonymous Coward 78993940

Yep I do a lot of sweet things for people. They tell me they were just crying praying God would send an angel and low and behold I show up and save them.

I was eating on Maui and saw a girl drinking and crying alone. I told them to take my card to pay her tab. She found out and walked over. I said I know something is very wrong. Talk. She had just gotten married yesterday and her new husband had just beat her on their honeymoon night. I put her in my car and drove her to the nail salon. Booked her a flight to a neighbor island etc.

She said she was just sitting there crying begging God to send help.

I arrive when needed. It's what I do.

I post on here when I am on the go. Usually down just past Obama's new house at Waimanalo.

I love to snorkel. Love to lift weights a lot. Drive fast. Help save people in distress.

This summer and early Autumn did some fun trips. Sailed under the Golden Gate Bridge.

I enjoyed driving through Monument Valley and trashing my car few months ago. Star gazing at Joshua Tree. Etc.

My dad had a plane and we would fly in it together. I was his copilot. We laughed our asses off after almost flipping his plane on top of my house while flying over it. So I miss that crazy sh*t. Have always wanted to be inverted in a fighter jet over enemy airspace.

I know the feeling of being half-here and not-here.

Been increasing dramatically over the last few days.

Is there any way to increase it? Or 'decrease physicality'?

Physicality has become more like a holiday this past week.

Quoting: Anonymous Coward 85043897

They are not stopping us from raising money, cleaning the house, home-farming, building new villages, towns and cities, writing software, rolling out new water and energy tech, and pretty much anything else.

They're not making it easy, but they're not physically stopping anyone.

Let me ask you... what are they stopping you from doing?

The macro-process is, you dream a better and better dream, and they ultimately fade from view, then get cleaned up by The Observing Groups.

But its on us to set a better fractal timeline, with hard work, pragmatism, but also a focus on abstract freedom.

Once to vibration raises and coheres enough, they will have a hard time on the surface.

It definitely induces an altered way of thinking. I have experienced increased clarity from sleep deprivation on the rare occasion but it usually has the opposite effect. There is something that happens which I can't explain, that feeling of being between worlds or having access to your subconscious while conscious.
