Can anyone feel themselves drifting into the right hemisphere as the timelines split and converge?

It's almost indescribable. So I won't try.

It's like slowly drifting into a different world. But if you try and conceptualize what's happening, you lose it.

I've also seen all timelines converging into one huge Niagara falls for timelines, if you catch my drift.

Took me a few seconds to get that pic then I got it. Smack. Good post.

I realize I've been MK'd to be terrified of the right hand side. Like sodding Theon Greyjoy in Game of Thrones. He won't even let his sister rescue him, because Ramsay has thoroughly convinced him he's Reek.

For today's class, our textbook will be:

Get past the 90s design, and you'll find a true treasure trove.

The heart of the wise inclines to the right, but the heart of the fool to the left.

Don't you know that you are the temple of God, and that the Spirit of God dwells in you?

And the house, when it was built, was built of stone made ready before it was brought there: so that there was neither hammer nor axe nor any tool of iron heard in the house, while it was being built.

Westworld.

The left hand path correlates with left hemispheric dominant existence.

The left is always west, as the right is always east.

Many humans find themselves on the left hand path not realizing it. Those powerful and well advanced on this westward path rejoice in their ongoing victory over much of the human race. While I have no respect for their actions, I do have respect for their accomplishments in this realm.

I've been doing binaural beats and isochronic tones meditations for almost 20 years now...the right brain gets a huge pressure in it when I go deep especially in epsilon, delta, theta. It has given me a tremendous ability to resist the programming of this false world as well as near perfect memory.

Once you tap both at once it enables you to perceive the next layers.

It helps if you can suspend all Judgement and be accepting of everything, I mean everything.

If you are elevated in vibration you have risen above the lower layer and instead of being embedded in it you have control over it. The Higher controls the lower.

Understanding the patterns helps. Octaves.

From Black and white on and off of the left hemisphere to the Non Linear Right Hemisphere you combine the two to create control centers of what you perceive and interact with.

From Evil and Good to flavors, no longer does right and wrong exist, only flavors and pattern of behavior. Who you are is up to you. Same as every other being. Instead of Judging them by some invented yardstick accpet they are what they are and have a right to exist.

Think of the Golden Rule, denying a being the right to exist is to become self extinct by your own Rule as an Inevitability somewhere along The Balance. It is known as a classic "bad move" which leads to you eventual demise.

You don't want to interact with everything. When people "turn on" or "wake up" as we used to say they often find it overwhelming because they have not developed the control centers to turn up and down and tune their new access points.

Don't tell people what you are up to and they can't be tagged along. Some follow this rule where they only ask questions so they don't get tangled with others.

I always say openly I don't make anyone believe anything they don't want to believe in (even though it saves them) nor do I make anyone do anything they don't want to (even if it would save them).

That said every time you help someone they become indebted to you. Every piece of free information you give them....

I hope people understand why I say as little as possible, for their sake not mine.

A random thought cam eto me. i think you might enjoy yourself playing accordion, or bass, or something like that... in a NZ jam band. Just an idea. No pressure. Free will respected at all times.

I had an awakening experience in mid-June, and became a quarter crazy because of the drifting experiences. Now I have it much more under control.

Part of me wanted to keep what I was doing secret... but the ones who monitor will eventually find out. So might as well post about it on GLP.

I'm not sure that free information means someone is in a literal debt to soemone else. That would need to be explicitly agreed to beforehand, preferably in writing.

I'll think about octaves next time.

A harmonica helps practice breathing.

I wonder what wonders trumpet and sax palyers have secretly uncovered.

Shutting down thinking sure is good. I've started to shut things down in order: Shut down needs, shut down fears, shut down irritation, shut down vehement thoughts, shut down x, y, z.

I find shutting them down like this yields a more complete silence.

Casting your net the the right has been referenced in some esoteric Bible sites. Hiddenmeanings . com is very good, if you can get past the 80s design.

I realised the best way to search that site is to use google. i.e.:

cast your net www.hiddenmeanings.com < straight into Google. Many secrets there.

John21:6

And he said unto them, Cast the net on the right side of the ship, and you shall find.

They cast therefore, and now they were not able to draw it for the multitude of fishes.

Re: Can anyone feel themselves drifting into the right hemisphere as the timelines split and converge?

Mall World, and this world are catching up with each other.

I heard GLPers talking bout Mall World.

Will have to check it out.

Can you jump off the time track? i.e. spend an hour or more there for ten minutes here?

Re: Can anyone feel themselves drifting into the right hemisphere as the timelines split and converge?

I am glad to see this post OP.
 I have been experiencing this for several months now.

Can anyone feel themselves drifting into the right hemisphere as the timelines split and converge?

I catch myself drifting into a different world, similar to this one, but with a more genteel, pleasant feel to it. I feel as if I have stepped back in time a bit as well, how I imagine it might have been 100 to 200 years ago.
 I find it happening when I'm in a relaxed state, while driving is the most common and I enjoy the way it feels so much that I don't want to return fully to this reality.

Once I realized this was happening I began to ponder what it was and I am wondering if I am transitioning into another dimension as the vibrational energy is shifting on earth.

I am being drawn into a dimension that my vibration is a better match to and one day, POOF! that may become my "real reality" and this life will be a fading memory.

When you go to the other worlds, you have to decide:

- Where you're going to go.
- Who you're going to go with.
- What you're going to do.

The possibilities are endless.

You don't even have to be in touch with your companion on this side of the veil.

I too am wondering if I can tip the balance and live more over there than here. It's certainly technically possible. What if that world was your main world, and you just came here for holidays? How exciting.

Do you find yourself drifting up, down, left, right, in, out?

For me it's clearly back and to the right.

Not a recurring dream, but a recurring place one dreams about:

Absurdly steep and elaborate escalators. Stairwells that lead in and around in maze-like configurations. Elevators and lifts without walls (not good if you're scared of heights). Secret passageways. Underground food storage warehouse type setup.

And of course, being able to "float" up and down the staircases. Try spontaneously accelerating by force of will while "floating" down the stairwells, speed up and grab the railing as you swing around the landing to increase speed on your way down to wherever.

Oh, and they have a friendly tobacco shop.

I've taken to calling it "Mall-World".
