Re: What do you Wish for Everyone this Christmas?

I wish happiness for all.

We aren't cut out to be socialists. We are the people who couldn't be constrained by Europe. We are the malcontents, idealists, speculators, dreamers, inventors, debtors and criminals who would not be chained. We don't play well with others, we are brash, outlandish and cunning. let us do what we do best; let us be Americans.

That's good. I hope you get it.

Some people do deserve that.

So how do you reconcile Wishing the Best for everyone, and the need for Planetary Justice?

Re: What do you Wish for Everyone this Christmas?

I wish everyone could have a moment of complete clarity as to how and who are operating the world right now. I wish them to break free from their tv induced hypnosis and see true reality. A world wide epiphany.

This would save the world.

What do you Wish for Everyone this Christmas?

Which I feel that I have but truly wish for others.
