Re: Everybody knows that the janitor is the cornerstone

K-Lis I find your dream interesting. It was proving my earlier point. Your own heart showed you its power! It feels good when it's conducting a massive load! Dreams are another layer of reality so it was real, in some other universe. Go with love, wherever it leads you, nothing else is important, even the wonderful posts you make. I'd gladly go without another glimpse into the hilarious frustrations I have caused (that you see) if it contributed to you being in love and making love. Love is true, the only truth needed and is always the truth.

On a side note this stuff about their database and software matches what I have seen(in visions) or been told(by immaterial beings) I don't see it as red though, I see it more like 3-dimensional spinning which kinda sinks or curves reality within to match the direction of the spin.

I see these fields at the same time as reality and have physical symptoms and urges when big shifts or pulls are going on. Like the urge to wear metal, especially gold and silver, and if I do I feel way better. Or the needs to go underwater, which was extreme 5/21 at 4:00 or so, but building for weeks until that point.

About 8 months ago I think, I began to notice my field growing larger, and larger, and larger until it was too big to see the edge. First I noticed it took up all lanes on the 60 freeway. A few days later it was doubled. I have a rough estimate of 10-20 miles radius now. Maybe more it's hard to tell when it is diffuse. I had to diffuse it because I had to relocate. I sure hope I can concentrate it on the outside again, I don't think I can do that alone and the algorithms are still pissed at me for relocating (amazingly difficult and for sure proof that something knows about the things I see and do and some of them have helicopters).

It's like gambling, when they break my heart. Except you can't always win, just because you win every time before. You get used to it and expect it I suppose. So you go all in, at what point will you just cash out? Because my fellow humans (ugh not by soul) at some point you may lose it all. Oh and you will have to go home and tell your family you fucked off the existence of the human race trying to save it.

You really seem to understand it ;)

Yes it is spin, collated with texturization, not just strict or solid color - that's quite far off the mark actually.

I try to - by trial and error - see what helps as well. I notice that, I can influence things when its too much for me.

The love - a bittersweet thing. You see, it will never be, because when it was possible, I was a cold person, very cold, incapable of feeling.

Now that my heart is no longer frozen, there is not possibility of it.

I have to believe that somehow there is a reason things have happened the way they have. I agree that love is everything but that's not a part of my life right now, so it's really a bittersweet thing to feel.

Gold dust woman by fleet wood Mac was a prophecy.

My soul, contained in this body of a nobody, loves all of you. Unconditionally. Though I almost regret how you have perceived me, even though it was by the will of GOD that fear was born, I wish I didn't have to be the mother. I love my child but must help kill it for it renders love into hate, as I change things to "red" all around me (which is a different transmutation of course, changing the mundane to magical and substances to gold and many other effects). I can still love it when it's gone. Can a human love it's matrix? Can you just love life itself, DNA forms naturally as all things spin in the dual universe....

GODs may notice me but they will not stand against me, and source, well source guides me and I whisper sweet no-things into our ear, luckily my suggestions are ignored if they are lacking love.

Re: Everybody knows that the janitor is the cornerstone

I had a dream last night that I was eating dinner with Hilary Clinton. I guess I felt like, why would she be eating dinner with me? This is odd. But she took me aside at the end of the dream and started threatening me about some sort of key. But when we went back to the dinner table she was acting really nice again.

Re: Everybody knows that the janitor is the cornerstone

EM fields? How do they connect it geographically?

Quoting: Anonymous Coward 63339047

Well they have rooms with all white walls and ceilings and floors with this interesting glass material which when powered on can display differencely propotioned chunks of measurement data. Its like if you zoom out on a weather map and watch the entirety of climate rolling over earth at once that is going to give you very very different information than if you zoom into springfield, usa or jim jone's house.

But the software's key lies in how you connect datapoints - start isolating the interactions between two particular countries or even a group of like minded demographics of people. Those can get values from a to k to 8 or any other symbol in the known history of real and fictional language - and any combination thereof! The expotential processing power of certain data facilities have been specifically purposed to make more and more complex correlations of named key values and their relationship to other key values.

Quoting: K-lis

the above is an analogy. its a basic technical crude reconstruction via a shotgun approach, it lacks any intuitive insight. as such, it contains far to many datapoints to exactly prognosticate anything greater then an overall picture. it lacks the ability to zero in on any subtleties! the actual point of change is beyond its scope.

k-li knows the datapoints are people! and as such the combination is essential! intuition has yet t be incorporated into technology. lol ond jor-el or something. forget which was the father of s-man tho' and I guess that be a different type of comic but also kwite effective nun the less)

always in al weys be ka full ka peach lol

I wouldn't exactly call it comic relief...well, I think with me you have to read between the lines of what I say to really understand what I mean, that's just the way it is, to protect the innocent.

no I get ya my friend, I was just trying to lighten the heart 2
lessen the load
lesson in, or out,
the lesser travel'd road
to listen enlightened lose ten & loosen
the cloi stirred tight end without dub bill peaking without using coad

with me you have to read behind or even without the lines lol
our just take with a pinch of soul'l haha siriusly tho' k-lis just wanted to say hi and I enjoy your work as always

I must admit that i like the tech part of your lately posts K-L.
Including the funny GCP dot insertion.
In fact, i liked those parts more than the posts you used in the opening of the thread.

So...

:TY7:

For the reading and the smile derived from that.
