A Wishlist for Work App/Website Could Help People Get on Their Feet... UPDATED: Red Duotone Design

For example:

I would like a 30USD Ukulele >>> If someone buys it for me, I'll spend 2 hours cleaning up trash in Danshui. I'll take before and after videos to prove I did the work.

I would like a Bamboo Mattress, cost 50USD >>> If someone buys it for me, I'll make a 1 hour video on Business English.

~O~

Post what you want, and what you're prepared to do if someone buys it for you.

~O~

The above examples are on a Pay It Forward system. There are other ways to do things.

I have a lot of "nearly built" software... Posting this as a reminder to get it done, and put it high on my TODO list.

Re: A Wishlist for Work App/Website Could Help People Get on Their Feet... UPDATED: Red Duotone Design

The system is flawed and broken.

Small measures will not fix the overall problem which caused them in the first place.

No system not based on Love will be sustainable to Infinity.

The founding principal of what binds everything together. A loving system would do everything in a loving fashion. Such a simple answer and Simplicity is the hall mark of high evolution. Something which works every-time.

Consumerism is Predatory. Wages and working is exploitation and not loving.

Commerce is not loving.

So easy to see what goes wrong once you already have the answers through repetition.

No World Oder that is not Love based at it's core will succeed.

Education-With Love
Medicine-With Love.

It is embarrassing to have to tell people to obvious answers.

Love, Fun and Humor is a better combination yet. All the things you don't really like doing when make fun cease to be things you don't like doing.

Make the system based on Love Fun and humor and things flow to better places for all.

The OP is suggesting mutual value bartering. There is zero predatory about that, and guess what? It can be done with "love, fun and humor".

I actually trialled the system when I paid a guy 300TWD to sweep a corner of Danshui park clean.

Is is still clean, to this day.

Just didn't nail the software cos of brainfog and constant psychic attacks.

As promised, got a shaky version up. Currently unusable, but code is there.

- All the data is dummy, please ignore it. Will rewrite later.
- App is no longer for homeless people, nor for raising 100USD. I'll rewrite content tomorrow.
