More school shootings

Regional blackouts which will get worse all year

Stock market will collapse

WWIII will kick off by next fall

All this, but with one major kick-off event--

Two things are going on randomly & simultaneously: 1) NWO global de-pop w/PTB/elite moving forward with their plans, PLUS 2) the crazies in Russia.

Re: Alright, what's about to go down?

What's your money on for 2023?

Quoting: TlvmmCpof

I believe much must happen in a very much more tumultuous couple years immediately ahead before it gets very, very bad...

Now, of course, no one knows the day or the hour

but we are expected to know the season..

Everyone has been speculating, of course, all my lifetime now all certain that they were the special ones that really knew more than everyone else and all were always all wrong, of course.

Many have always done the same. Many here.

And through all these years and discussions and studies, it seems likely to me that The LORD probably is on a 2,000 year schedule or so... if not precisely...

and if He left around 32 ad

then we could expect Him to return around 2032 ad...

Now, if we allow for the 7-year Tribulation before that, we would be looking at 2025 sometime as the beginning of the Tribulation.

That gives us 2023 and 2024 to get there and that seems like a very realistic schedule about now...

in my opinion...

Daniel's 70 Weeks
The Precision of Prophecy

Gabriel told Daniel that the interval between the commandment to rebuild Jerusalem until the presentation of the Messiah as King would be 173,880 days.

The commandment to restore and build Jerusalem was given by Artaxerxes Longimanus on March 14, 445 B.C.

Jesus presented Himself as King. It occurred on April 6, 32 A.D.

March 14, 445 B.C. and April 6, 32 A.D.

173,880 days exactly, to the very day!

[\[link to www.khouse.org.\(secure\)\]](#)

I quote this most astonishing example again only to attest to the high likelihood for Jesus' death and resurrection beginning the Church Age in 32 ad.

Whether accurate or not and whether without any other basis or not, I seem to more and more be coming to the conclusion that a roughly but closely to 2,000 year time frame is required here, as God seems to be consistent 2,000 years Creation Adam to Noah, 2,000 years Noah to Christ, 2,000 years Christ 'til...

so that would put us around 2032 for the Return of Christ.

If so, then the 7 year Tribulation Time of Jacob's Trouble Daniel's 70th Week would probably begin sometime in 2025.

I believe the Rapture to most likely be before the Tribulation begins, likely a very short time before, but maybe a little longer, but not years before, so probably several years yet if this is at all ballpark close.

On the other hand, I'm good with getting out of here pronto if it be His Will. I remember 88 Reasons...

So... no clue on day or hour.. but my best guess is we may have a few short years remaining, but I most certainly could be wrong.

Consider those years His Patient Blessing for all those that will soon come to Believe in Him...

Re: Alright, what's about to go down?

You're going to see nukes used again on a limited basis.
People will be terrified, petrified.....
It's going to make the Rona fear look like a joke...
Imagine mushroom clouds being shown over and over again on the 24/7 news cycle...
It's going to happen.
Imagine the level of control they can usher in with that level of fear in the minds of the population.
Life will never be the same.
The transition will be brutal.

I see a necessary part of the upcoming prophetic fulfillments to be a limited nuclear war which involves a middle east exchange

Re: Alright, what's about to go down?

This is the year that the Dems will start turning the story, through media double-speak and outright lying, from the whole "america was founded on the backs of black slaves" and fabricate a method or mechanism for people to not only sign themselves up for indentured servitude, but de facto slavery. I'm not talking about credit debt. I mean real slavery where the owner actually treats people as property, beats and takes the lives of those "owned", as if they were no better than furniture or fixtures.

At the same time, they will introduce something that will eventually be used to destroy all of the woke gender dysphoria people. In a way, you could say they already have, because the incessant drive to get these people to self mutilate is basically akin to sterilizing them. And they're not only doing it right under the noses, but have gotten them to argue for their own undoing.

Pedos will be out in the open, fully admitting to being pedos, and all of the woke bastards will actually cheer them on. Not much of a prediction there, either, as we've already seen this happening. We just haven't seen any specific people own up to and admit it. We will this year. And the leftists will glorify them for it.

All this year.

The comet will reach its perihelion on January 12, 2023, at a distance of 1.11 AU (166 million km) and the closest approach to Earth will be on February 1, 2023, at a distance of 0.28 AU (42 million km). The comet is expected to get brighter than magnitude 6 and thus become visible with the naked eye.

See the paths they take?

You can't always divert them to paths with better outcomes for all.

Maybe it is better to lose the portion of them who were always dragging us down?

How long can you hold the head of a brother or sister above the water when they hands keep trying to drown you?

We leave bright paths and future for those who want them...and of their own free-will everyone separates to where they think they should be.

To save people you have to change what they think and believe.

It is like a puzzle box where to unlock the next door you have to change what you are able to believe.

The whole time there is a force actively trying to take them to the worst places.

Re: Alright, what's about to go down?

More deaths from covid and covid vaccines. More natural disasters, Russia will widen its war which will eventually included more nations. The economy will worsen in the US and eventually it will go bankrupt, not sure if it will happen in 2023 or later.
