Re: Is It Possible To Guard and Preserve Your Loosh?

With what sort of attitude should you approach and destroy the loosh vampire?

Something very close to this would be ideal.

Re: Is It Possible To Guard and Preserve Your Loosh?

What's another name for loosh?

Quoting: Anonymous Coward 79656393

Emotion.

Loosh is just emotional energy.

I could post a few pages on how to work, amplify and direct it>

Nothing mystical, just emotional energy, which warps apparent reality and fixes odds if you can work and direct it.

E-motion.

Emotional mastery allows it all. Each one enhances one or more of your other abilities.

Quoting: Anonymous Coward 83970448

"E-Motion" where did you come across this concept, I thought I was the only one in the world who had this thought. It makes sense that I am not the original creator of this thought. Nothing new under the sun and all that. I would love to learn more or help conceptualize what "E-Motion" is or the theory of "E-Motion". Thanks :)

Re: Is It Possible To Guard and Preserve Your Loosh?

You can block or ignore loosh vamps on GLP and elsewhere if you need to do so to focus.

Simply block any attempt to elicit an emotional response from you.

And if you are at last forced to destroy them, destroy them without the slightest emotion as if you were swatting a fly.

Listen to Bach and Mozart while you destroy them.

Relax while you destroy them.

Meditate while you destroy them.

Garden while you destroy them.

Take your time and enjoy yourself.

There's no rush because you're in emotional control.

Re: Is It Possible To Guard and Preserve Your Loosh?

Breathe in the fresh air and bask in the beauty of nature.

Chuckle knowing that you are destroying loosh vamps.

Smile and laugh knowing that they are dying in pain and agony at trying to steal your loosh.

Contemplate beauty and grace.

Obliterate them and feel the dance and wonderment in your steps.

Air - Johann Sebastian Bach

If a person is attacked enough on here, there is no way for them to know if you are discussing the people who attacked them or they themselves. But I suppose this is the point, when you are the good guys no matter what you do in service of this abstract 'goodness.'

Re: Is It Possible To Guard and Preserve Your Loosh?

Yes. You have free will to choose how you feel about something. Attitude can cost you far more loosh than anything else.

Of course there are times when sorrow and loss will drive it too. Consciousness is energy.

This whole scheme is about who you are, rather than what you do. You lay it on the victims of people too powerful to touch so you can punish them for not forgiving the crimes against them done by people who knew they'd be pressured to forgive them. Really nasty stuff. In civilized nations, that's called 'blaming the victim.'

Hamster runnin' wheel is hamster runnin' wheel

Run the wheel for YOURSELF AND LOVED ONES

Don't feed the trolls

Recently heard about what they do with loosh

Creates synthetic soul (think demiurge)

Synthetic version of enlightenment through semi-physical tech (for those who do not want to walk the natural path (but runs out))

Create astral domains (harnessing the innate creator aspects (imagination / creativity streams))

Use non-locality of consciousness aspect for travel, rv'ing, and time travel (Dune got this part)

More valuable than any physical substance

Gold for loosh is a fool's trade - which is why they do it

Not so much. I'm beginning to take care of myself, not pacing the floor in some drunken rage. If you need something and genuinely need it rather than just wanting it, you could apologize and ask for it. But that's beneath you, because you want slaves. Always did. I come here looking for something that would constitute good faith and never find it, only fear, insinuation, selective quotes from the Bible and that sort of thing.

Re: Is It Possible To Guard and Preserve Your Loosh?

Go back to what we know of human beginnings.

Before kings, etc., we had to kill something to eat it.

Among what was so revolutionary about Jesus, was when He said, "Eat my flesh and drink my blood."

Otherwise, hurry up with that Star Trek food.

Or, read Castaneda's account of Don Juan and how he learned to "see" death, even that of his son.

I "saw" my brother's death, but I am still emo. I did enough to get him out through Jesus, but now he's at a place where he doesn't care any more.

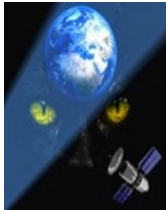

My dreams are mostly dark and filled with strangers these days.

I am a T1.

Re: Is It Possible To Guard and Preserve Your Loosh?

Don't ever get emotionally invested in their vampiric emotional projections. That's their whole game.

It's nearly identical to narcissistic projection and gas lighting tactics, just more exaggerated.

If you've had experience with a narcissistic abuser, you are in a ready position to learn to combat loosh vamps. The two are nearly indistinguishable.

Do not play a defensive game against loosh vamps. Attack them and never cease until they are obliterated.

Quoting: The_Gardener

Exactly. The goal is to go "gray rock". Not always possible, most of us have that one trigger or subject that really makes us see red and go emotionally into rabid werewolf mode. But "gray rock" is to be strived for. It works for dealing with human narcissists, 100%. As for the energy extractor vamps of the non human types, being able to shrug and genuinely not GAF goes an awfully long way. A balance must be kept, though. It's a very thin, very precarious wire to walk. You want to keep your energy unto yourself, but you also don't wanna become a living dead thing. That's why mindfulness should be kept up every moment while you're awake. Sometimes i fail but i keep on going. In general i'm managing well.

Imo it should be called Extracted Energy. The word loosh just sounds silly, always makes me think of a unicorn with a shit eating grin. I think that word puts a lot of people off the subject bc it just sounds loopy.

I would add that the optimal state to shoot for, is to be grey on the outside, but bursting with color on the inside.

In other words, don't stop living and feeling fully, just stop projecting your emotions outwards. At least not as an unconscious habit. If you make a conscious decision to blast (positive or negative) emotion towards something external once in a while, so be it, but you should NEVER do it unthinkingly or habitually. Your default state as seen by an external observer should be grey.

And that's the answer to OP's question.

BTW, the only reason fapping is bad for you, is because you blast out an intense emotional outburst when you do it. The practice isn't "sinful" in itself, it is simply punching a huge hole in your aura and dumping a ton of loosh into the aether, where it can be sucked up by any entity.

If you don't wish to stop fapping, learn to direct the energy outburst to where you want it to go. Take responsibility for your energy.

Re: Is It Possible To Guard and Preserve Your Loosh?

Just as an example, when I buried this pot of clay built to hold the waters of mayim, every part including the pendulum at the top is keyed to a Bible verse.

What possible use could just such a physical mnemonic device have in the psycho-spiritual realm?

What this actually is is a perpetual spiritual hurricane machine built as a small scale model but working through ephemeral progressions to increase to any size needed.

I had been continually attacked by a handful of loosh vamps/Satanists and at last decided it was time to mount a defense and offense.

What it is is a psycho-spiritual head bashing machine. It's a sledgehammer on spin cycle. For every action of theirs seeking to leach loosh, there is an equal and opposite reaction of this ruthless scourge device.

It is fixed and bound in the earth against them. The device is for my psychic benefit, not others. It is a constant and fixed piece of craft based directly upon God's word. God's word is what has the power. My little scale model pot device is simply a physical visual aid to reflect that power back to me lest I forget.

Therefore, each and every time they attempt to steal loosh, they now must pay for it in doubles. And so this psycho-spiritual energy war actually functions to vamp the vamps.

hmmm, I guess we are stuck with some terms.
Call it The Spice if it pleases you...
Loosh is similar to Love, or verisimilar to Lush.

Re: Is It Possible To Guard and Preserve Your Loosh?

Magh + teknic (Power Craft) is a Persian and Greek compound that became morphed and bastardized into magic/magick.

There is absolutely no difference in kind between harnessing hydraulic energy and converting it into electricity and Elijah calling down fire from heaven. It's all maghteknic.

The same basic principle that you learned in Magick 101 of causing change in your immediate environment is simply power craft explained in different terms.

Change the energy dynamic (including as spiritual energy dynamic) and you change the energy flow.

That simple and that profound.

That's why loosh vamps can get knocked from here to eternity if you change the energy dynamic via power craft. And God invented power craft.

However, it actually requires God's wisdom to be, well, a wisard. It's not just a cute word. It actually takes wisdom.

Re: Is It Possible To Guard and Preserve Your Loosh?

Every Symbol is a focus and a conduct.

People use Their Products with Their Symbols on them which makes them Loosh rich every time you use their products.

What Brand cellphone do you use, or laptop?

The registered owner of those symbols is harvesting all the loosh for free.

Money is the same, it is a talisman that delivers energy to the owner of the talisman.

A little of bit of focus and emotion, done billions of time each day. Money is addictive because of the occult properties they put into it.

Corporate Logos.

Everything you are able to purchase has a Registered symbol on it.

The Energy Vampires made rules so they wouldn't eat the flock all at once.

Re: Is It Possible To Guard and Preserve Your Loosh?

It all comes down to your system after that.

The stronger it is the less power it needs to operate.

Build on the rock not the shifting sands.

Rock hard logic and mathematics.

Understanding the prevailing patterns of reality makes what you do efficient if you use them.

All the "magics" are just such systems of belief enabled by the user.

Traditional paths are easy, people have used them and trodden a deep path making the required energy a lot less.

All such systems have to be logical in the face of chaos, which shreds that which is not rock solid. This is why so many people go mad. Took the power before they attained self mastery.

You can do both in increments safely enough.
