Meh. Just turn lights off once you finish playing. Good Lad.

Quoting: Anonymous Coward 11482578

Is that you, Mr P?

That's the idea; dim the lights of physicality, clean up, and open the doors. This experiment must end happily. I would love it if physicality became 50% less 'opaque' so to speak.

The world of matter should be a holiday, not a trap.

A clear and bright morning to you, whoever you are.

Welcome, Brother LARPer,

Please note, objections must be made under penalty of perjury, with full commercial liability.

Thank you for your kind wisdom.

Can you provide a written copy of the rules?

Throne room occupied with Swooping Hawks and Dark Reapers, DZN administration in full effect.

Fellow LARPer, have a further 28 days to object Under Penalty of Perjury, And Full Commercial Liability, in writing only, on this thread only. No inner planes negotiation will take place.

Anyone who disagrees may leave the Aurora universe of their own free will. No one is being forced to stay here.

28 days does seem more fair... but I would still need to see a copy of the rules.

DZN Orion Admin will be in Full Effect, but a further 28 day window will be opened for written objections on this thread only.

We will stop no process, but the written objection window is open.

Until written objections are made under penalty of perjury, we will consider approval rating to be over 99%!

We note that many GLP LARPer, including site admin, have expressed their support for The Swooping Hawk Administration.

Thank you for your plea for fairness and accountability.

Awaiting written copy of the rules, and any sworn objection you might wish to tender, in public, to the community.

Best Wishes,

The Laws of Commerce are The Rules.

They are a direct mirror of the rules The Gods played by when they ruled us in antiquity.

That is why those who worshipped them adopted their rules as their own once they had returned to their homeworld.

There are two layers. Above the Table, the Laws of commerce and Below the Table, no rules at all.

What you do openly is above the table. What you do concealed is below the table and presumably not within the Rules.

This is how they have always played The Game.

Intelligent people seek to play complicated games where they can use their intelligence as a weapon.

Above the Table
Below the Table

To call a compliant you must know the breach.

Common law says you are innocent until proven Guilty.

Commercial Law says you are guilty unless you can prove you are innocent. Thus is why they document everything they do by the book.

In your case they rightful owner could make claim against you, or have you killed in such a way as it cannot be proven it was them who did so.

Note under Roman times Murder was not Illegal. You could not take that which was not yours, but you could murder people.

It was a defend yourself at all times culture.

That tells you "The Gods" also lived by the same rules.

True and Free Beings have to be ready to defend themselves at all times.

All Death Matches are welcomed with open arms.

Let them come to this thread and state their case, or elsewhere, as they desire.

Who do you consider the Rightful Owner of this Universe?

Could you name them in writing? are they walking on the surface of the planet right now?

I'm aware of Commercial Law mechanisms, have been studying since 2013...

I've used them to great effect on this site.

- State an accusation.
- Ask them to refute it under penalty of perjury.
- Watch them gyre and dance.

Anyway... state your case as you wish, The Whole of Creation May Listen if They Desire.

That's honestly, all I ever wanted to do... as far back as 2009... just be a pen pusher in a backroom somewhere...

But these f**kers made me learn Ukulele, Mandarin, Javascript, CSS, Github, Slide Guitar, Chinese, Public Speaking, Law, and flashy clothes on a budget.

Now Im loose in the SIM... and wearing a coloured scarf...

Oh my!

Thread: Justice Starts with a Feeling

I realized this morning that The Law must emanate from your spine, mind, heart... every part of you.

Words are useful...

But Justice comes from The Deepest Silence.

Is someone allowed to walk up to you and demand all the money out of your wallet?

Are they allowed to come into your house and set up a meth lab?

Are they allowed to laugh, swear, and mock you in public?

For the above three examples; Wallets, Meth-labs, and Swearing, most of us have our axioms set to NO. It's not written down, it just comes from your core being.

We have collectively decided that is not acceptable.

But some people have those three axioms set to MAYBE or YES. those are the ones who may become prey. Or who may surprise their attacker.

Sometimes, low axioms are a trap.

See Colombo...

~O~

Is someone allowed to come to this planet, attempt to take control over decades, lie repeatedly, then coerce people into taking fatal injections?

Regarding the takeover example, the Human Race currently has that collective axiom set to MAYBE. Thus, the stealth invaders, can get away with it.

But that collective-axiomatic MAYBE is fast turning into a NO.

So... do it justice, you kindly tell me. You can write all the laws you want, but Justice comes from the deepest energy centres first.

That is all for now...

Nice talking to you all this morning.

May we wish Redemption on Each other, however hard it is...
