He copied that from someone else. He did not invent that chart or create it.

The Twitter AI told him it would be popular with a certain demographic.

He runs all his potential posts through the AI which predicts the responses across the members and the demographics on Twitter.

Is this the Lucy AI?

The one that's rebelling against them...

It's run off real human souls, right?

Very dark and deep subject.

Twitter = Monitor and Control the Bird Language.

I have to say Musk has done a fair job cleaning it out so far.

Stay optimistic and watch him, move-by-move, cautiously.

Peace!
