I think it's in the crown, heart of pineal chakra.
Or the eye.

Is that right?

Thank you Sir, sincerely.

We'll get you out of there.

No, it has nothing to do with you or your human body.

Its where the matrix is literally programmed and Where reality is written.

Where the force that commands every piece within this

How are compass needles made?

Needle is made by first producing the pig iron. Pig iron is made of iron ore, coke, and limestone which are heated in a blast furnace by hot pressurized air. This results in iron which has 90% iron, 3-5% carbon, and various impurities.

Re: Dear Heimdall, are these your Bosses?

A torus behaves like a bubble or ball, but the energy within it is always moving.

It gets sucked through the vortex, and eventually expands back into the outer casing of the ball shape again.

Now imagine this Torus is the source of all creation. The torus of energy is composed of trillions of little pixel points.

Now imagine each one of these pixel points along the torus as it flows is connected to the soul and spirit of one of the players playing the game.

Now when the Forefather/Source created himself, he was at the center of this torus of energy.

Now as I mentioned earlier, many when seeking the truth, seek the Light, and seeking that Light they are lead to God the Father, which as I said earlier is often referred to as the upright pyramid of light.

But when the Forefather created God the Father, he also created Sophia the Mother as his consort.

Now within the center point of the torus is the absolute center point of the pyramid, but if you look closer, its not a pyramid its more diamond shaped, like the needle of a compass.

One half is the Positive God the Father and the other half is the negative Sophia the Mother.

Now imagine you are God and you are sitting in your chair, like the Architect in the Matrix movies, and as you look at all the pixel points in the torus of screens flowing around you, you decided to make a change.

In this position you are God the Father, and you point your pyramid point at the pixel dot of the soul you wish to influence at the moment. What God doesn't see, is that he's not just the arrow/pyramid pointing at that location, he also has his reversed polarity self, Sophia pointing at the exact opposite side of the torus.

So while God is doing something good for one soul, Sophia is doing something negative for another soul.

So every time God tries to help out, Sophia is also creating a counter action.

But they don't see each other, because their backs on are turned to each other.

So they keep making moves, never turning around to see that when they influence one soul, the other is doing the opposite on the other side of the torus.

So this "needle" of God and Sophia are constantly spinning around hitting every pixel, millions of times every second.

The needle gives every pixel multiple commands every second.

Do you understand this concept so far?

Quoting: Anonymous Coward 75545447

Now an anomaly awakens when the needle within the torus stops spinning and focuses on a point.

So imagine this needle point is spinning around in all directions, trying to touch every point of the torus at every moment.

Then it stops.

It focuses on a single soul, it stops moving. It only focuses on this point.

This is when anomalies awaken, when Messiahs show up, when a chosen one arrives.

You see Lord Shiva is said to be the most powerful of the Gods, yet spends all his waking hours in meditation focusing on the supreme god head.

That is because the more the needle stops on your soul, the more of God's light flows into you, enlightening you.

Lord Shiva has to constantly focus on the supreme god head, so that the supreme godhead focuses on him, thus making him the avatar of God.

The secret to becoming the avatar of God, is to get this needle to stop spinning and stop and spend time on your soul point.

But to do that, requires that you get God's attention.

Re: Dear Heimdall, are these your Bosses?

I had painted a mural on my wall of source the father, Christ, the holy spirit, not sure specifically as my ideas weren't as developed at the time but my intent was to channel the highest of all things. I painted this image surrounded by a cosmic heaven with a depiction of my soul entering the solar system with the planets positioned as they were at the time of my birth.

It was large painted on 2 walls leaking over onto a 3rd wall but at some point I became disillusioned and painted over a major portion of it. I developed a bad case of depression and have considered that maybe I cursed myself by committing a crime against art. Despite it being unfinished, it was beautiful and awe inspiring. Now I see that I most likely was on the right track and have been planning to recreate this mural but larger and more beautiful than before.

Re: Dear Heimdall, are these your Bosses?

A torus behaves like a bubble or ball, but the energy within it is always moving.

It gets sucked through the vortex, and eventually expands back into the outer casing of the ball shape again.

Now imagine this Torus is the source of all creation. The torus of energy is composed of trillions of little pixel points.

Now imagine each one of these pixel points along the torus as it flows is connected to the soul and spirit of one of the players playing the game.

Now when the Forefather/Source created himself, he was at the center of this torus of energy.

Now as I mentioned earlier, many when seeking the truth, seek the Light, and seeking that Light they are lead to God the Father, which as I said earlier is often referred to as the upright pyramid of light.

But when the Forefather created God the Father, he also created Sophia the Mother as his consort.

Now within the center point of the torus is the absolute center point of the pyramid, but if you look closer, its not a pyramid its more diamond shaped, like the needle of a compass.

One half is the Positive God the Father and the other half is the negative Sophia the Mother.

Now imagine you are God and you are sitting in your chair, like the Architect in the Matrix movies, and as you look at all the pixel points in the torus of screens flowing around you, you decided to make a change.

In this position you are God the Father, and you point your pyramid point at the pixel dot of the soul you wish to influence at the moment. What God doesn't see, is that he's not just the arrow/pyramid pointing at that location, he also has his reversed polarity self, Sophia pointing at the exact opposite side of the torus.

So while God is doing something good for one soul, Sophia is doing something negative for another soul.

So every time God tries to help out, Sophia is also creating a counter action.

But they don't see each other, because their backs on are turned to each other.

So they keep making moves, never turning around to see that when they influence one soul, the other is doing the opposite on the other side of the torus.

So this "needle" of God and Sophia are constantly spinning around hitting every pixel, millions of times every second.

The needle gives every pixel multiple commands every second.

Do you understand this concept so far?

Now an anomaly awakens when the needle within the torus stops spinning and focuses on a point.

So imagine this needle point is spinning around in all directions, trying to touch every point of the torus at every moment.

Then it stops.

It focuses on a single soul, it stops moving. It only focuses on this point.

This is when anomalies awaken, when Messiahs show up, when a chosen one arrives.

You see Lord Shiva is said to be the most powerful of the Gods, yet spends all his waking hours in meditation focusing on the supreme god head.

That is because the more the needle stops on your soul, the more of God's light flows into you, enlightening you.

Lord Shiva has to constantly focus on the supreme god head, so that the supreme godhead focuses on him, thus making him the avatar of God.

The secret to becoming the avatar of God, is to get this needle to stop spinning and stop and spend time on your soul point.

But to do that, requires that you get God's attention.

This is the secret to the 8 pointed star of Sirius, its meant to represent the Forefather, the center point of creation. The Needle spinning wildly inside the Torus of souls.

It symbolizes how the Elohim/Anunnaki have mastered both sides of the duality within this reality matrix. Both columns of their tree.

Are you referring to the trees of life and death?
