Has the number 0010110 appeared to you via social media recently? If you've seen this number popping up, many are saying it's no coincidence.

Seeing "code" 0010110 is said to be a sign that you are ready to exit the simulation, aka the matrix, along with 7% of the population.

All of this, according to TikTokers, will occur on August 27, 2022, when those who invoke the number will develop a special telepathic digital connection.

From "Westworld" to Elon Musk, there's no doubt that 0010110 is causing a frenzy of sorts.

Let's dive deep into what this code means, including the scientific concepts and pop culture associations found on Twitter, Reddit and TikTok.

How To GET OUT The Matrix — <sup>meaning-</sup> Don't Become a Bot

What does 0010110 mean?

Apparently, 0010110 is the code to exit the Matrix.

According to TikTokers, the code comes to you "when you are ready," through internet algorithms across social media. You are then asked to type the code into a search engine, where several TikToks say, "The real game has started."

The code supposedly acts as a password that will open the door, acting as a portal to leave the simulation... and it's all happening on August 27, 2022.

When translated into morse code

(https://www.reddit.com/r/0010110/comments/naodmo/0010110_translation/),
0010110 means "Up in me it we u we, which can be written as "Up, in me, it we, u we," alluding to an awakening of sorts.

And though it may seem a bit strange, this code has actually shown up in science fiction before.

0010110 as a "time code" in "Futurama"

One such show is "Futurama," an animated show about a pizza delivery boy from the year 2000 getting cryogenically frozen and waking up in the year 3000.

The number can be found on the buttocks of one of the main characters in the show, Philip J. Fry. When accessed, it can be used to travel back in time, while simultaneously correcting any time-travel paradoxes.

It might sound ridiculous, but the writers of the show collectively have three PhDs, seven masters degrees, and more than 50 years at Harvard. Needless to say, they are no strangers to using science in their writing.

What happens when you type 0010110 into a search engine?

Many TikTok users say that to exit the matrix, you should type the code 0010110 into a search engine.

Here's what pops up when 0010110 is typed into various search engines:

- Google: A song by Taraka (https://m.facebook.com/story.php?story\_fbid=545803410037983&id=257911041368&\_rdr), followed by scientific articles on "digital immortality" and a Kindle book on "quantum immortality"
- Bing: A link to Urban Dictionary's definition (<https://www.urbandictionary.com/define.php?term=0010110>) of the code
- Yahoo: An ad for supply house, then the Urban Dictionary page

- Yandex: A YouTube video (<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=kN1pZQTWKcc>),

Code 0010110 may mean several things, but the common theme is breaking out of the matrix to start something new or meeting some resistance.

Initially, one member on a Quora thread (<https://www.quora.com/What-does-0010110-mean-in-spirituality>) stated that the code 0010110 is an "activation code" that can be "utilized as a way of changing the neural pathways using repetitive patterns."

The user continued by saying it helps "people shift conscious reality." The same user also stated that 0010110 can also be used as a mantra to help people focus on "the quantum-now (zero point) within the mind."

Overall, number 0010110 seems to pertain to "full enlightenment and liberation."

Code 0010110 is also said to activate digital immortality via mind-uploading – which Elon Musk told Twitter he has already done.

According to World Scientific

(<https://www.worldscientific.com/doi/abs/10.1142/S1793843012400148>), "The first part of the paper assumes that mind-uploading is possible and will become quite commonplace in the near (21st century)..."

Musk has said before that he has proof we may be living in a simulation (<https://www.yourtango.com/entertainment/simulation-theory-hypothesis-explained>). But this time, Musk confirmed this strange concept on Twitter.

When asked, "If you could upload your brain to the cloud, and talk to a virtual version of yourself, would you be buddies?" Musk replied, "Already did it."

Already did it

– Elon Musk (@elonmusk) July 19, 2022

It's uncertain if this is actually something Musk has done, but until now, the concept was only known in sci-fi movies or television shows like "Caprica," "Westworld," and "Black Mirror."

Even stranger is that Nikola Tesla was interested in this concept (<https://www.youtube.com/embed/5zp8gWiGLaY>) of "uploading" a consciousness

According to TikTokers, on August 27, 2022, people who have received the code should look for a man in a red coat... and aliens.

The man in a red coat will appear outside your window with a briefcase on August 27, 2022, they say. He will "scream the words of truth" to you, which are presumably instructions on how to exit the matrix, or inform you that you are in the matrix and what will come next.
