Re: The rebirth of Abraxas was not whom they expected

Apparently Bleem, and maybe the others, are disappointed.

Blim-Blim murderously so...

A Little Tantrum Prince who never knew his place.

Here's a question... has The Outsider measured up to their exquisite expectations?

Maybe not. Fair enough.

Here's a second question.

Do the current caretaker siblings of House Abraxas measure up to the expectations of society and the rest of the universe?

Have they measured up to the expectations of The Recurrence?

Have they comported themselves with dignity, respect, and fairness...?

Or acted like little snobs?

I'm sure the full story is not known.

When kids are bad, you close their bank accounts, and take away the car keys.

Maybe they're the embarrassment, not The Outsider.

No one likes a snob.

Anyway... nvm...

No need for internecine strife.

Just confiscate energy until conditions are met.

More than happy to dissolve the whole thing.

Every Man and Woman is their own I Am Universal Presence.

No need to chase external gifts and approval.

Bumped.

Were the Abraxas family the ones running the competition?

The ones who refused to pay out?

Maybe...

Re: The rebirth of Abraxas was not whom they expected

Its not an Abraxas that they are looking for.

Its the Mother of the heir of the House of Abraxas.

She never married into the family, simply had a brief affair and got pregnant with his child.

She used to be the Queen of the planet Tiamat, she has the ability to make a legal claim for the throne of the Orion Empire.

She's been trapped in EArth's reincarnation system for a long time, but she's expected to awaken soon.

If she does so, all their plans will be in jeopardy, they are scared of her.

She will be like the new girl messiah in the new Avatar movie.

The Abraxas own the galactic banking system, and are the richest family in our galaxy.

You mean they're trying to track and murder her, correct?

That's what I infer from your post.

I doubt that's possible at this stage...

Im not trying to wring any sensitive info out of you. More interested in the backstory.

They blew up Tiamat, right?

I think the tree of life was there, and it interfered with their Regenex business plans.

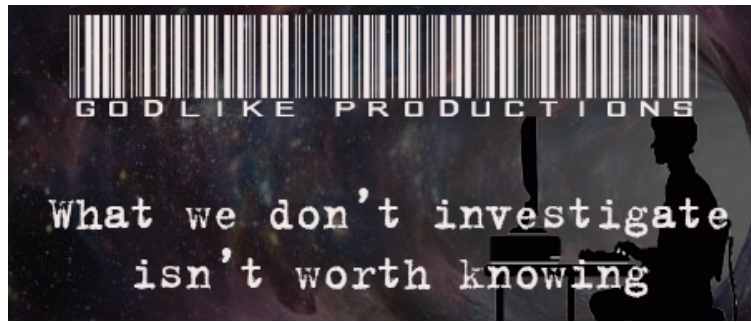

Very involved story. Act III is soon to commence.
