Re: Many people are now having dreams of not going to make it to Heaven

Very recently, I had a dream of seeing Jesus. I was struggling just a few days before about my beliefs. He didn't say a word when I saw him. I knew it was him right off. He gave me the vibe of deep friendship. It was amazing. BTW, he's not white.

Re: Many people are now having dreams of not going to make it to Heaven

I'm sure that many of you somewhere thought that you were quite ok, not a bad person. But now people will dream of why they are not, and why they wont make it to Heaven.

Its because you are small and young compared to the big boys and girls that will make it to Heaven. What is "up" to you is not "up" to them and thats why you dont want to live with them in Heaven or on Earth because you cannot be who you want to be.

This is where we collectively are in our hearts right now.

Quoting: Anonymous Coward 79556534

Probably more because the unconscious mind can admit to itself that what the conscious mind believes is true, is illogical.

Time sensitive...

Dreams are not the be-all, end-all true deliveries of messages that people believe they are. Dreams are easily corrupted, easily influenced.

Quoting: gmd

Yes they are. Dreams are your reality and it doesnt matter if you understand them or not, or be deceived in them or not. They are your reality, period.

Ignore OP. There is more going on right now then what OP is claiming, which is just to keep you feeling separate from God - who is always with us in our heart. OP is just peddling bullshit trying to keep us in fear and worry, which seems more demonic than goodness.

Sometimes you can feel the energy and intent from the text - OP's same old bs claims are to fuel her narcissism and sense of grandeur. There is more to it than this, but hard to explain and not worth it.

We will all make it. Believe in the source of love and goodness, God's love is beyond anything that human minds can comprehend. We are all connected through God. OP is still stuck in ego based judgments of who is "worthy" - get out of here with that nonsense and narcissistic bullshit

Win the argument in Heaven before God and you got me.

Until then, people will have dreams of going to Hell even when they want to live and want to be good. Because the truth is, most people dont want to live and dont want to be good. And they want to live in denial to hold on to their way of life for as long as possible.

And that is why i made this thread, to share the truth that most dont want to live with.

Quoting: Anonymous Coward 79556534

I have no need to "get you" in anyway because even your statement of winning some argument before God in Heaven is flawed from the premise. Good and God is everywhere, there is nowhere God is not, why "argue" with him in Heaven? I Am is not separate from us in some Heaven, he is in our hearts and the source of our love and what we are.

There is an awakening and shift going on, and what you are doing is just feeding the forces of ego, pride, and narcissism with your bs about size, worth, and comparison. Its bullshit that can get people down and worried in addition to bs feeding your ego and vanity. I firmly suspect your motive is to keep this world going on as long as it can, fueled by negativity and feelings of fear and separation that you are perpetuating.

Dreams can easily be manipulated and corrupted, like someone mentioned. Dreams can be manipulated from external sources based on this world, from people. We know this world isn't true reality, so too say dreams are reality for people is another mistruth. We are also capable of lucid dreaming, so even if one has a bad dream, all it takes is awareness to shift the whole feel of the dream of bad to goodness, love, awe, and joy. We came from God, which is absolute and untarnishable. As such, our core essence of what we are is pure and untarnishable. Your attitude and your concept and description of God in Heaven sounds like it came from an episode of It's Always Sunny in Philadelphia, not worth taking as truth.

I agree that most people caught up in this world may want to hold on to this way of life as long as possible, but I believe they will drop such desires if the truth is made known to them. They are living in ignorance, circumstances, and fear of loss - to call them small and little compared to others means you are turning a blind eye to their ignorance and suffering.

Regardless, I suspect your post is to keep this world going by drawing out and provoking negative reactions from people to feed on suffering, fear, separation from the Lord of Love, and to feel better about yourself/narcissistic fuel.

Not going to put my attention and awareness on this thread anymore, as it just feeds your trollish bs more energy it does not deserve. You vacillate from saying they are going to Hell to they are going to permanent death. Sounds like you don't truly know what is going on and you are just fanning the flames of fear because you yourself are manipulated or in need of narcissistic fuel.

I hope the best in goodness and love for you. May we all wake up to see goodness and love.

Than you misunderstood my thread. Its the opposite of what you claim i am doing. Because i do measure myself and others by their spirit i am changing the world. Money is not power with me, nor ego. I look at the heart just like God does.

Is it narcissism to put myself above others because i am closer to God than most are? I say no because that is why Heaven is Heaven because everyone has God at the top. If we can get a society where up is up like in Heaven we have paradise on Earth. But if money is power, up is down and down is up that is where evil can thrive.

Let go of your ego and look up to me if i am closer to God than you are. To get close to God i too had to let go of my ego.

Well good luck with all these theories some people have a quazi-properly oriented, perspective/concept in terms of the big slap across the face impending for most of these prejudiced, hair-brained, nimrods

What say you find yourself beyond the Pearly-Gates because all else was an intolerable offence to all your senses to the effect you've gone squeezed yourself through the needle eye because the alternative was so much worse
Regardless of how it was when you got there, you turn your nose up and turn to leave

there's the gate, buster

Looking out you find yourself facing a pitch-black void of nothing that to enter appears a suicide like hitting the airlock and exiting a your ship in outerspace without a tether or space suit cause your right most people aren't going to make it they are going to wind up there in the hospital

waking up

being put back together

like car crash victims

The bible assumes that if people would exalt themselves they would do it because they have more money, land, fame etc. So you see they were cavemen back then.

Psychological fear is the name of the game right now. It's as if you would be cursed. Think about how you would react if there was no hope. Let's say you found out that you made an awful choice for which there was no returning from it. That you have to live with it, no matter how horrible it was. Would you teach others what you have done? Or would you keep it secret and lead others down the path that you failed under. Which has the greatest benefit to you and which is the easiest route?

Lot was Abraham's cousin and Abraham did his best to save Lot from Sodom and Gammora. In fact, the longest conversation with God in the bible was Abraham trying to convince God not to destroy Sodom and Gammora. God wanted to protect Abraham from having angry thoughts toward God and so had pity on Lot. So, God had Lot leave Sodom and Gamorra with his daughters and wife. Lot's daughters had sex with Lot and ended up creating the lines of Ammon and Moabite.

Several years later, God told Abraham to sacrifice his son. Abraham had no complaints or questions, and went to sacrifice his son. God prevented Abraham from doing the final deed but God was impressed with Abraham.

Why was Abraham trying to save Lot so much and not even question the sacrifice of his own son? Abraham was a prophet. Could it be that he was able to see the damage done by the Moabites and Ammonites which were descendants of Lot? That the Moabites and Ammonites would be cursed to the very least a 10th generation?

Who are the Moabite and Ammonite descendants? Someone very important is included in those 10 generations. I compel you to research it.

How can i lead others down a path while keeping it a secret? And isnt teaching others what i have done and leading others down the path that i failed under the same thing?

Anyway, i am telling these things to make the world right, because its the truth. Even if it means that people would understand that there is no more hope for them. They had it coming, they should have made a different choice if they didnt want to experience death.

Several years later, God told Abraham to sacrifice his son. Abraham had no complaints or questions, and went to sacrifice his son. God prevented Abraham from doing the final deed but God was impressed with Abraham.

God should be arrested and charged.

Deadly serious.

You don't understand which is why I mentioned it. There is more to the story than meets the eyes. And it is rather scary as you think deeper and deeper into its meaning. Hindsight.

Will you swear that under penalty of perjury?

I was banned from one heaven, accepted in another.

This is well known.

Anyway.

Perjury Oath?

I can write one up...
