This is why Heaven seeks 144'000 Anomalous Traitors

Even the most powerful entities of the divine world cannot act directly on earth. Why? Because they are not made of physical matter. In order for them to intervene, human beings themselves must give them the opportunity. As long as there is no traitor within to let the enemy pass, a fortress will remain impenetrable. A traitor is therefore essential! You will say, of course, that there is nothing admirable about this role, but in certain situations it is not bad, either. Since the earth is like a fortress whose occupants are opposed to admitting luminous spirits, traitors are necessary to open the gates. On earth, human beings are as powerful as all the armies of heaven, and when they want to stand up to these armies, nothing can stop them. This is why heaven seeks traitors, or allies if you like, who agree to let them pass. Spiritualists are just that: allies, thanks to whom heaven can infiltrate this fortress called earth and transform everything.

The earth is like a fortress, where even the divine entities cannot install order, justice and peace, because entities are not made of physical matter. Humans themselves need to make it possible for them to intervene. On earth, humans are as powerful as all the heavenly armies, and if they want to stand up to them, nothing can be done about it! The armies will only be able to enter the fortress if someone on the inside opens at least one door for them. There are numerous books and films recounting the adventures of besieged towns which the enemy army are unable to take until a 'traitor' within eventually opens the way! Well, it is the same with the earth. It will never be besieged from without by the heavenly army. 'Traitors' have to open breaches in the ramparts from inside. 'Traitor'... The word sounds a little strange, but at least the image it conjures up should make it clear to you that your most important task is to open breaches, with love and light, to allow the heavenly army in.

For thousands of years, all kinds of evil creatures have been discharging their destructive forces into the universe, and as these forces have accumulated they have formed a monster traditionally called the Dragon. Daring, selfless beings have led a constant, thankless struggle against it, but so far no one has succeeded in vanquishing it. Only Archangel Michael, who is the spirit of the Sun and one of the most luminous powers of God, is capable of taming this egregor.* Together with his army, he will accomplish what so many souls have been asking of the Creator for centuries. His intervention was foretold in Revelations and other sacred books. This is why we must link ourselves with the Archangel Michael and ask for his protection and the opportunity to work with him and contribute to his victory. The children of God, who will be listed in great number among those who have taken part in the Archangel Michael's battle, will receive the kiss of the Angel of Fire. This kiss will not burn them but illuminate them.

* a psychic entity, formed by the thoughts, wishes and fluidic emanations of a nation, religion or other collectivity.

"More than six billion human beings inhabit the earth, but how many of them genuinely wish for the peace and happiness of humanity? So very few! And when these few raise their voices they are quickly stifled by the clamour of those who, consciously or not, only want to dominate others and seize their lands and riches. This is why the celestial entities, seeing how few people are capable of voting in favour of peace and well-being for all, have no choice but to leave humanity to its sad lot.

Without realizing it, human beings are participating, for good or ill, in a collective endeavour. If the voices of the altruistic and enlightened increase in number – or even if, without increasing their numbers they become more powerful and convincing – the decision will be taken in favour of the kingdom of God and the Golden Age. But people themselves must tilt the balance in this direction, for the spirits on high do not intervene. They are content, shall we say, to register the votes."
