Re: Everybody knows that the janitor is the cornerstone

K, I think its all good, I apologize if my wording created your emotion of doing something wrong. I'm no rocket scientist but I know what is contained taste different than not contained... And then of course magnetism, what attracts grabs or leeches on... Old bonds die, new bonds constant, always moving, I'm just now to some awareness of to start gauging, and by that I don't mean just a journal but also like tempering. I'm in the first stages of it so I imagine it will become elemental workings soon, by that I mean testing the waters and learning, I guess you could say it would be no different than one working with different spirit animals instead of having just one, like that combined with the 4 and 5 th elements... Yesterday on seers thread spirit animals came up, and I never had anyone tell me what my animal spirit was, nor have I ever considered just one. I see Hawks a lot and I always feel honored to see a Eagle or Owl, I love all my birds that fly around here even the bats too:) anyway, back to the thread, facts/feelings was awesome, but I took a quiz after, just to see what it said and it said wolf.. Of which my first instinct was I disagreed. So I started looking at why that was, and it was the fact I had seen 3 baby snakes within the last two weeks, so the snake is my spirit animal since yesterday:) so I'm thrilled about learning what this awareness/perception brings.. Creates because that is what it will be doing, but all mixed by different emotions with a different weight and force. First contained then radiates out Uncontained so to speak, but is it really or is our individual aurora an outter containment? Hmm, it would be right, within the aura contained? If so, then that would be s good thing I think , because then it would be like transforming, it would be your own you are transforming and no other/s..

Gosh, sorry K, I wrote as I thought

I like that. Mine made itself known yesterday with a funny sign. This time I get the feeling that I am to help it than it help me, I've noticed. Although, I have been learning about power as these are also called power animals and the way one is to receive power or give power correctly and how to get one's power back when given wrongly. It is quite deep but simple. It all starts with self and self worth.

Interesting! Thanks for sharing. I have always been fortunate to know my spirit animal but others visit me too. White owls and crows, in particular. When they bring messages they are very clear and I listen. So I suppose I consider them spirit animals too - wolves only visit me in spirit, not many left in the wild sadly.

Re: Everybody knows that the janitor is the cornerstone

I guess a 'Home' is a place where a 'Family' lives and some 'Families' adopt pet 'Dogs' which they train, love, and care for.

'Homeless' people don't have any Real 'Family' to care for them so they are out in the cold on the streets. They see things most people would never dream of. What about people with homes and no family? perhaps they merely have houses.

Report Abusive Post

What does it mean to talk backwards?
 Is it that what you say is no longer what you mean?
 What's 'Good Architecture' anyway?

Like if you have a lot of 'Doors' in your 'House' and they lead to 'nowhere' is it just that they are still somehow 'Locked' or are they really arbitrary, or something?
 And anybody with the 'Key' can enter your 'House' but only people you've given a 'Key' to could enter your 'Home'.

Something to that effect.

Could a white knight ride a black horse?

Are 'Rooms' where little 'Gems' are safely stored?
 Are Carnivals where 'Masks' are born?
 Do all Toys live in a 'Dollhouse'?
 Or want to?

In a garden, not everything you water grows.
 Not all seeds are fruit, sometimes it's stuff you shouldn't eat.
 OR so I've been told...

Goodnight fellow shining one. I enjoy the little peeks you share of their lives, its like a breath of fresh air when my life is constantly watched. Have they ever once considered, that you know of, maybe helping a nobody? Maybe loving one? I would think it wise to earn our loyalty... for a very different thing is being earned as far as I can remember.

The star is there, are the wise men following? Will they present gifts this time around? It doesn't seem like it. God hurts at the coldness of humanity's heart, is it so? Please have a heart!!!!

I had a dream last night that I was eating dinner with Hilary Clinton. I guess I felt like, why would she be eating dinner with me? This is odd. But she took me aside at the end of the dream and started threatening me about some sort of key. But when we went back to the dinner table she was acting really nice again.

they also know patterns of sound and light induce specific physical alterations of consciousness more or less useful for the induction of certain themes, feelings or symbols, and have been passing this knowledge down through the centuries as 'magick' within inner circles of the elite. You wouldn't believe the stuff you could learn about this in the vatican's libraries. Well with current tech they've pinpointing the physical signals of what they've been charting symbolically for hundreds of years. So you could say precision is greatly improved but general broadcasting controls 99.9% of the population without any general trouble

I saw a video with a Russian scientist using equipment that could image this EM field and display it in colours, not so much rolling waves as you describe though.

What was observed was that when a subject was introduced to pain, the light displayed blue and moved down out through the feet area, the opposite observed with pleasure.

I just thought it interesting, if nothing else.

The upgrade to hd tv actually aidings in the transmission of the signals they need as do wireless routers, computer monitors, and transmission towers. Unlike mainstream "idiots" as they are known in elite circles it is well known among them EVERYTHING is electric and they make full use of the energy of Attention from human sources, the energy of planetary and galactic alignments, the phases of our sun and moon - and the matrix of coherence, is a fractal formed by the complete mosaic of forces. When you can physically see the mosaic, you can become a "painter"

That is totally fascinating.

I imagine the "resolution" of the imaging is the key here. Think about a screen, the amount of different variables in flux are "keyed" into a greater variety of details. The more details you are tracking on the same "imaging" changes the complexity of the picture. For example a fully colored straight "blot" or "blob" of color gives a couple measurement values - one for the luminosity or density of brightness, and another for the tone of the color, another for the shape or breadth of the cluster.

But if you want to see a much more detailed picture of force interactions in time, you start to see the spaces between conscious perception of time, and it's no longer a straight "blot of light" - it contains interstices between perception where what will occur is still black or undecided, the resonance matrix that's forming between time shows the deeper geometry of reality, this is like stepping sideways from flatland in 2d space to 3d space, well it's similar for the higher dimensions too.

The problem for the humans was our senses are imperfect and only tracking so many details. Enter technology, we can overlay hyper-dimensional imaging cybernetically.

Of course the watchers or annunaki always were capable of this.

Hybrids...have traditionally looked down on the rest of their human brethren with disgust while harvesting energy for the annunaki from us even when they weren't aware that was always what the true purpose of their ancestor's "rituals" had been - even when the true story had been long lost even within the highest circles of the Brotherhood

Indeed, even so-the situation is an interesting one at this point in TIME.

The annunaki are starting to actively meddle, and the hybrids are no longer in the "dark" regarding why and how their so called magick and science function

Quoting: K-lis

Exactly and this was about maybe 8 years ago. I imagine they have the ability to enhance this even further.
Then they probably discovered all the use of our electricity is bad for us, so it is all hush hush :P
Maybe...I dunno...who knows right.
All those times you walked past something and felt a heavy magnetic tug on your body, it was just in your head :P
