Re: Most of humanity is weak and will get on the ships when they come

This is hotly debated.

A decent ET race would hang out with you on EArth, and open a meeting center. Show healing devices. Wouldnt try and rush you off planet.

There's actually a huge spectrum of ethics up there.

They still need to get permission, which hasn't been granted by the dreamers yet.

Re: Most of humanity is weak and will get on the ships when they come

My daughter had a dream asian people were reluctantly leaving and crying as they were pulled into a massive lightning storm that sat, on the ocean, in their tiny 4 person [look like joy ride boats at a theme park] boats.... as the wind took/sucked them, into the storm.... thousands....a very very very long line of them.... open ocean....massive storm.

Re: Most of humanity is weak and will get on the ships when they come

We need an open forum, where every group states their case on TV or social media, and debates publicly.

Then a 6-24 month travel moratorium while people make their informed, free-will decisions.

No honest group should fear that.

I have heard more like 20 year time frames from informed people... from public appearance, to "full doors opening". Im still not sure what full doors opening means.

~O~

Imagine a New York skyscraper, where elf-kids were raised on organic food, and taught yoga, and arts, but not allowed out, until a certain time.

Imagine that date comes, and all this naive, but attractive young people, are allowed into the streets of New York for the first time ever.

Imagine if the public was allowed to come and make job or travel offers, to these talented but totally clueless elf-kids who were seeing NYC for the first time ever.

Now, imagine the very broad spectrum of ethics and intents from people making offers. From very very peace and sovereignty oriented, to very very dark..

All looking beautiful. All wearing smiles. All promising the EArth and beyond.

That's what it'll be like for EArth. A planetary Rumspringa approaches, and it has to be managed correctly.

EArther DNA is the most coveted in the Universe.
