Do not simply pray, become prayer.
 DO not simply 'love', become Agape.
 That about covers it.

In this private corner of Creation, raping a child is punishable by death.

So is child sacrifice,

I put those limits on others and enforce them

99% of people will agree with me.

I could care less if others hold me to those limits, as I have no intention of raping or sacrificing children.

This private universe is NOT a Nephilim Party-Boy Free-For-All. Nor is the entity you refer to as "Jesus Christ" a prepaid Sin-EBT card to be abused at your convenience.

Human beings are not batteries for Exulted Catamite Hierarchies.

All that is DUST and BONES.

A passing note... The penalty for a mysterious thread deletion might well be an Imgur of the Catamite Backstage Offer, posted again, and again, and again, and again.

It's screengrabbed and PDFd.

Here, in Lieu of a long exposition, moderators are invited to think hard on that.

I admit that I am guilty of that. Sometimes I feel very angry and in my mind I even wish death on people. I know that's wrong. If I actually got my "wish" I know I would feel horrified about it. I don't actually want anyone to die.

Alright... but mercy can be abused.

In our society, in 2022, we set hard limits on burglaries, rape, murder, theft, and other crimes. this is cos 90% of people just want to mind their business, but 10% (or maybe more) insist on screwing it up for everyone else.

Would some 'enlightened monarch' or President who pardoned crimes like that be good for a country?

The unwelcome guests here are absolutely convinced they are doing us a favour by waddling round, lying, stealing, and teaching us "Lessons".

How about we're bored of them?

Mercy to the perpetrator is harshness towards the victim.

It's not easy...

... but I lean on the side of 97% Full Laissez-Faire.

The remaining 3% is a problem.

It's difficult to untie the emotional knot.

The best thing is to invoke Heavenly Justice on them.

Then you step out of the way and let The Gods do the work.

There are some people who deserve death... many of us think so... My colleague, the other day, pulled me up for being too merciful.

I don't think that's actually wrong to want a real hardcore offender to die...

Actually, that is not cursing them. It could be putting them out of their misery.

Cursing is outright: "I hope you end up sick, lonely and sad" whatever... which actually binds the person.

And, because of the mirror-like properties of this reality, it bounces back on us.

It's a very tricky subject.

The weaponize the mirror against us in at least two ways.

First, they get us hating Republicans, Democrats, Bidet, Lump, Blacks, Asians, Whites, Goths, Hipsters... get us hating each other. Then they step out of the way, and watch us curse each other.

So... we get trapped.

Second, they do the OPPOSITE... and tell us its totally wrong to ever want vengeance on someone, and we should meekly let other people walk all over us.

then they watch us not stand up for ourselves.

That's the demonic method. They'll tell you two opposing lies, and get you running round in circles.

The key is to walk the middle way, as always...
