Lady Justice is Knocking on the World's Door

As human beings we have a primordial need to see justice being carried out to the unjust, especially when it comes to the elite or those in leadership positions. If one has asked themselves what is wrong in life, or what they were missing, one simple answer could be the lack of justice that we have seen for the majority of our lives. I would argue living in a world absent of true justice is actually quite an unique occurrence historically-speaking. And yet that is the world that "they" have attempted to build. That's why it feels so strange. So awkward. This is all about to change.

Take a deep breath and smell the air. In one week take another deep breath and see if you can smell the difference... The air is about to change and it will never be the same again.

The snakes have taken over the henhouse. But have no fear, if one chops the head off a snake, the snake will always die. It just took them a lot of time to find the head. Now the executioner's ax is fully sharpened. There will be nowhere to run and nowhere to hide. No hole to slither into...

For those concerned with reputation above all else, the death of one's reputation can be worse, and certainly more "eternal", than death itself, for one's reputation transcends death. History has never been kind to the wicked.

Justice is coming and it's going to be oh so sweet.

And from last night...

Called this +6 months ago. This video gave me goosebumps all over.... The world is about to change more drastically than it ever has perhaps in "modern history". I've said since the beginning that whoever is guilty should always be held accountable. Justice is coming swiftly. Look at how literally every foreign leader is praising Trump at the moment. They all know what is about to happen. Look at the consolidations of power sweeping the world. The rats are about to be dethroned. Forever...

"For nothing is hidden that will not be made manifest, nor is anything secret that will not be known and come to light." Luke 8:17

The big D is about to be the big heee-ro.

Hold on to your butts, strap on your seatbels. cause it gonna be a wild ride.

That knocking will stop.
Then she will start pounding.
That will stop also.
then he will kick in the door.
That is the moment the wrongdoers actually know they are living on borrowed time and have no where to run.

Re: Lady Justice is Knocking on the World's Door

I may fail in my ability to write a perfect essay. I may fail in my ability to find the totality of all necessary evidence for a given subject. But I surely will never fail in my ability to find original theories or conceptualize questions worth asking. If I can make that my bedrock, and writing and research come with time, there are no limits and no answers that cannot be found.

For what good is it if someone can write perfectly, research perfectly, but not conceptualize questions actually worth asking? More so, what fun is it?

Truth has no limit.
History has no limit.
Lies have no limit.
The limits are artificially placed by those who do not want us to look closer.

When we add another layer to our magnifying glass,
When we sharpen our scalpels,
All those things you thought forgotten will one day come back into the light...
No one lights a candle and puts it in a place that is hidden, such as under a bowl.
They put it on a stand, so that those who come in may see the light as well.
It's about to get very bright.

Blessed.

EA
