Fear itself!
Did it recline unto their shadow realm, camouflaged, roaming ?

Life pods are ready.

Escape routes are opened for the faithful.

The question that remains is Who was a Player and who were just ornaments and features of the game (NPC's).

The Gods liked to make things, then they would play smash-ups with their creations versus each other.

High chlorophyll foods can alleviate a lot of suffering.

If you ask intelligent questions of those around you, or GLP, they can assist. But you have to ask the right questions, in the right way, at the right time.

GLP can answer nearly any question.

In your local area, parks and nature spots contain many 'mysterious people' walking around.
But you have to find the right way to meet them. They dress and act normal.
It's a puzzle you have to solve bit by bit.

Clans do exist.
Most players have an alliance of some sort.
You can go before The Master of The Game and make inquiries or complaints.
As a declared Player you are under the authenticity of The Master of The Game, aka The Great Architect of The Universe in his role as The Judge.

There is no safe place as a player but what you create for yourself.

Some people will help you as it is in their nature to do so.

Most people offering to do so will rob you blind if you let them.
