The world stage is such a carnival, and the world players such sick freaks, I have to applaud God at His wry sense of humor

I'm so beyond outrage anymore. The more this nightmare planet sizzles and warps and deforms itself into a sick demonic pretzel, the more I become morbidly entertained. Everything they do now is to demoralize you. Don't forget that. This is a Divine Comedy playing out. And God is the practical joker this time.

Maybe this is the Psycho Circus that St. Paul warned us we were living in.

I just stood up and mock-applauded God like Conal Cochran did at the end of H3. Well played, Sir. Thank you for the comedic element in our much-deserved Judgment.

Still surprised that literally No One in the West has had enough, and lashed out against the system in an extreme way. After all the outrage and injustice they've unleashed on us. Other than some guy in Canada that kept giving the middle finger to Trudeau for his dead son on Twitter. We are pathetic.

I believe He is too.

Nothing wrong with a little comic relief to break the tension of it being such a prolonged arrival.

Sorry. Everyone in the media spotlight is just so damn comical. I guess God will judge me for thinking that.

100%, haha.

Everyone is waiting for the next clown show election. THAT is the biggest most embarrassing joke of all.

Yes, it's a big joke, and it's being rubbed in our face.

So do what sages throughout the millennia have done.

Switch off the damn TV.

- Learn a language.
- Get fit.
- Study engineering.
- Grow something.
- Build something.
- Heal someone.
- Meet people by The River.
- Study music.

The great works of art and engineering have always been built while Some d**khead was on the Fake Throne of Fake Power.

Who cares about those muppets?

This world is forged by those who look forward in time, and build a bridge to Eternity.
