Which is better, ReTard or just a Tard?

I'm only asking because, Apparently, I'm a Retard.

TBH, we're all tards.

Quite possibly...

We're all dumb-dumbs here. Else we wouldn't be in this mess.

This is a planet of waddling experts. Is everyone really as clever as they think they are?

Maybe there are huge accounts, not just for the N... but for everyone. Accounts held in our name.

But we have to be diligent enough to find out how to access them.

I'm researching the subject now. Lots of dead ends, lots of misdirection.

But there's a kernel of truth somewhere therein...

 We just want secrets and to watch him do tricks.

So he shows us tricks but not the kind that entertain us. The kind that tie us in mental and emotional knots.

He is a bastard and thinks we deserve it for being nosey and demanding of him.

It's loosh. Who do you think you anger by posting anomaly threads? Does Trinity care?

No. It drives traffic and clicks. He's in on it too. They just pretend it's taboo to keep you posting about it.

You think you're fighting some fight by giving power to someone who doesn't like you? All he has to do is act like he doesn't like it and you all keep doing it. It's reverse psychology.

He's a drug dealer and he is the drug he sells and he has all the connections he needs to keep it going here.

The mods are laughing their asses off at all of you creating threads inflating the traffic here and making the site Worth more while the anomaly rakes in the loosh. You're all clueless.

listen, i was in the middle of dealing with an entire army of a schizophrenic murdering syndicate, in which the amount would be inherently unknown, the amount is most likely a 6-7 digit number. *The only ones who know are the ones who tracked the absurd timing of many individuals suicide, such as agencies across the world* i came to a nobody thread in 4chan to see if i could find something interesting about telepathy. what i noticed was an opportunity to prove the existence of them through clever tricks or whatevs. it worked. i proved the existence of the syndicate, and therefore could handle all of those that would require devotion and dedication to defeat. i could no longer, in the half of the span of that war, defeat my enemies with a simple "if."

hoodlums with weapons who shot in my neighborhood and pedophiles that demoralized me with projected visions of... well, i don't really want to formulate it explicitly. anything inbetween were murderers of many kind. you have to understand, i was not quick to kill anyone. the only one's that i have killed in a hurry where the sex-offenders with the usage of a monologue and a word.

i had a mental illness, that i would state that i have treated through cognitive science that i have developed, in which i could not stop thinking or else it would make my thoughts worse and uncontrollable. consider their only demand was that i could not watch anything, talk to anyone or think of anything; complete and utter silence. the one thing i could not give them in any way whatsoever.

there is a lot of shit that is NOT your business, for i have the correlations too many times to even attempt to be obtuse that the lot of you folk know about me, but has never even dared to say a name nor an explicit detail. do you have any idea how many times i have asked people to call, message or contact me? both on the internet as well as in my head. i was kept in the dark *the whole* time.

all in all, i would like for you to respect the fact that i have been FIGHTING for my life, my friend's and my family's life, while all of you bastards were busy playing "who's who." i do not consider myself to have any quarrels with any of you until you are ready to have a proper discussion of the world and it's geopolitical state and willingness to develop culture, for this shit? it's the opposite. it stagnates culture and leaves it to have no purpose and therefore i do not wish to do anything but play along in the name of tactical advantage.

for now, i would like to say, please... for the love of god, let this god damn meme die. all the time i come back from time to time to see if anything has changed, and it's always the same vague, ambiguous rhetoric that is designed to protect me or taunt me. doesn't matter to me. for all that i wish for is this to die at some point.

i DO NOT wish to be treated like an animal in the zoo, or a mental souvenir to be collected from tourists for boys to play war with. i know that i cannot always get what i want, and that is fine. but for surviving a horribly indescribable mess, whereas i am the last surviving version of myself, this is the only timeline where you will hear of me. i would like for you to honor that, and give the fuck up on this shit. if you want to do something about the world, consider doing it the right, lawful and compassionate way, just as i will. i do not wish for blood to drown the world, neither do you.

i'll stick around for some time, and i'll come back to see if there is anything out of the ordinary that could threaten my safety. so far on 4chan they are filled with agents of both official and unofficial kind that tickle my sense of safety and nothing more.

this is why i am here. to ensure that i can keep my family alive as well as myself in order to get one step ahead of something. you never know what's out there.

Hear the resemblance. It's a good sound but I honestly feel like there is too much competition and interference between all the instruments involved. Our sound has one instrument that dominates over having a group of instruments trying to strike a balance. Re: The Anomaly Is Not Your Friend

Neighbors are better than friends.
There are more obligations, but boundaries are clear.
People make themselves difficult when they jump boundaries.
Anything from speaking without an introduction to telling you to wear a mask is going too far with a stranger.
I would, for instance, approach women I knew and attempt to speak to them, because it had become customary, but I knew there would always be a sense in which it was an imposition, so I was not offended if her response was cold.
Then there is work. The old ethic, which was very sensible, was that you don't make friends at work. Work relationships need to be kept strictly business, and even going out drinking with the boys after work was a mistake. You might have to fire one of those boys and you don't want a lot of drama over your beer with the rest of the boys, who have suddenly decided to act like girls, because they haven't kept their work business only.
People will profess to be friends and run away when they see trouble coming.
And "Nobody Loves You When You're Down and Out", a John Lennon song that was I believe a common theme in the blues genre.

If people understood that friendship was very rare, basically love without the sex, I would agree that it's a great thing to have a friend.

They lighten your burden and enlighten your life.

They are good and reliable, humorous companions on an adventure.

But most of the time, they are people who want attention and want something. Or they want you to listen to them complain. Even when you invite them, they aren't generally interested in doing anything. Most people aren't interested in accomplishing anything, but that's what you need friends for. I mean, If you want to form a rock band, you need a few friends who will go to the ends of the Earth with you for almost nothing - in terms of pay.

Re: The Anomaly Is Not Your Friend

"It is a story of ghosts and phantoms and strange mental aberrations; of an invisible world which surrounds us and occasionally engulfs us; of prophets and prophecies, and gods and demons. It is a world of illusion and hallucination where the unreal seems very real, and where reality itself is distorted by strange forces which can seemingly manipulate space, time, and physical matter—forces which are almost entirely beyond our powers of comprehension"
