Neurophone now as valuable as gold.

If anyone bought a neurophone about a decade ago they know they were only about $300 and there was even a mini sized one for less. Now, the neurophone goes for almost 2 grand for an old model and a grande for a new model.

If u still have one laying around and need some extra cash, now would be the time to sell.

Neurophone now as valuable as gold.

Inventor Mr. Patrick Flanagan invented the first mind control device at 16 yrs. of age. It does direct input into the human mind, just like our corporate sponsors do. He is a friend of Nick Begich of AK. Nick showed one to Jesse Ventura on the HAARP Episode #1 that also showed my friend Jerry E. Smith before THEM gave Jerry the old Pancreas cancer murder trick after suckering him to UK.

Just like Jerry's good friend and writer Mr. Keith dies after knee surgery , thats murder.

Re: Neurophone now as valuable as gold.

Interesting timing, because he is set to re-launch the Neurophone and just did a crowd funding thing, he wants to be able to produce many of them to retail for 400 and then the goal is to produce a 99 dollar Neurophone.

I get his emails so I've been keeping up on this.

Patrick Flanagan has always been at least 50 years ahead of his time so he's one to have on the radar.

I know about him because Peter Tompkins wrote about him in his books.

His other web site is

I have bought his water treatment product, "Crystal Energy", and used it, I like it.

Re: Neurophone now as valuable as gold.

Why is it many of you read garbage, leaving the most important inventions, facts off the list is reason most will die in this mass planned event.

You can put words into someones head with this device, "Like go get a gun, shoot-up this place blah-blah, or go do this to blah-blah... No one on to these older tech. items?

Check out Aliens while your at it since they appear to be the power behind NWO and depopulation, just as Dr. Al Bielek told everyone. Thank the Pope and other Lifers for helping promote the over population of earth and all of us dying like bugs.

Re: Neurophone now as valuable as gold.

Tptb would never allow this to go mainstream.
