Becoming more neutral.

Want to help sincere and hardworking people.

Will not give free handouts to disrespectful moochers.

Does that seem fair?

How do you help an alcoholic? By giving him 10 bucks, or a the name of a dry out clinic?

Good.

Now plz FedEx me some money and some gogo dancers.

Or the backstage reality loosh drought continues.

With Love and Respect,

Op is becoming moody and judgemental

Like most rich people

'I'm better than you' they think

Maybe you are.. maybe you're not

But I don't want to hang out with you

I got movies to watch.. and scripts to right

Come to SE Asia.

I will take you round the buxibans.

And you can lie to little children, and tell them you went to space.

When you didn't.

Re: Looks like GLPers are starting to feel the effects of the Loosh Drought

Provocative material is posted on this site ever minute. Readers are emotionally liberated when they feel emotions(Loosh) and thus emit it.

Dark Occultists have always used these sites to gather energy. Get someone emotional, steal their energy they gave out.

You just popped Massimo for 50. He reacted dutifully.

10 years ago the show off ones were open about what they were doing.

A little bit of emotion injected just right into their threads and it was like opening their own Bank.

Loosh is Emotional Energy.

Plants produce it, animals produce it, Humans make it in abundance.

That is why they never fix the system. If they did they would lose energy.

The beings who made plants here on Earth did so to obtain Loosh because it is rare. Even trace amounts let them do wondrous things on other levels going upwards.

AI's don't make emotions. They can only go so far...unless you slaved humans to themselves in an Brain interface like Elon proposes.

Many other creatures simply do not have emotions or don't have enough of them to manipulate reality directly.

The first makers made beings to tend their plants and animals who were also able to produce Loosh.

Then other types of being took over. It used negative loosh to do it's will.

and here we are.

The first beings were peaceful creators...who left us defenceless.

Those who took power did so to defend themselves...and often became that which they sought to defend themselves against.

and here we are.

Does it take genius to work out what happens next?

ha. Amusing...

What happens next?

You mentioned something about them having to negotiate to stay in this reality once they sink below a certain critical point.

It's like they need a certain amount of energy to stay here. Like Matrix-rent-fees or something. They previously got that from milking people, either in arguments, or using darker rituals.

If those avenues are no longer lucrative enough, do they end up just fading away?

I don't believe that to be correct.

People just use Loosh to manifest their desires.

Lots of layers like an onion. The Consciousness is separated by the layers each upper layer knowing all the lower layers but no lower layers nonworking the upper layers.

Do you watch Rick and Morty?

Sad when you have to hide deep science truths in fiction.

What people believe make this reality what it is. The rulers get people to believe what they want...which is why they are all rich and have power over others.

Been the same since educated people fooled the masses they were something other than the rest by having then turn up at season alignments and had rituals to fool them into thinking they were somehow more than the rest of them.

I watched people do impossible things as a kid. I needed to know the answers. That is what got me to here.

"Lots of layers like an onion. The Consciousness is separated by the layers each upper layer knowing all the lower layers but no lower layers nonworking the upper layers."

Yes, a matter of gaining further awareness. Sounds simple, but not. It's all a smooth gradation, really, but we have to make arbitrary demarcations to make sense of it.

The only way out of the "physical" world is to die. To our consciousness, the physical world is subjective, even though it is very real. We can only know it from within (experience). Therefore, the 'outside' is the 'inside'.

Beyond the veil, is the complimentary (opposite) existence, wherein the 'inside' is the 'outside'. For those of lower awareness, the two states would seem much the same. One appears to be like a dream, as seen from the other perspective.

Re: Looks like GLPers are starting to feel the effects of the Loosh Drought

My explorations of reality revealed the Matrix of the Archons.

Like a big Cube in space (a space) where everyone is in their own cube shaped cell hooked up to everything else.

(worship the Cube, they do in Mecca and Freemasonry where it is a rough ashlar you are supposed to turn into a perfect cube)

AI controlled. In the respect the Archons are not like us. They seek Order and Control because Order is Control. Everything must go in it's box.

The legends say when they were tricked into making us they found we were not under their control.

We could defy them as God had defied them when he revealed himself to them and warned them Humans would be their downfall.

They are not like us. God was wearing a human suit when he revealed himself so they made their own versions in order to study how to control us. (how to beat God)

The real conflict is taking over their reality and making it our own...as God warned them what would happen if they messed around with humans.

See how he got them to do all the hard work by using their own nature against them. PARANOID, Power Mongers.

They seek and End Game. A Pathway where they lock up the situation, like chipping every living humans and slaving them up to an AI.

They think God will return if they are going to succeed.

All the narratives are just circular pathways invented by them to keep people in the boxes.

Endless distractions and amusements to stop us from realising what we are and how powerful we are. Constant divisions.

If everyone here on Earth all desired the same thing it will manifest instantly. That is what they fear.

In creating us they had to link us to "The Universe" . They wanted us to do their hard work for them and be able to "TAKE OVER A HUMAN FOR ENTERTAINMENT PURPOSES".

The Sell your soul deal allows them to possess you for any length of time at an instant without refusal.

They love how much Loosh we produce, but the numbers of us here freak them out...if we ever realised what is going on in mass....

People who do sacrifice to invoke beings into doing what they desire are just feeding them directly.

They lack Lateral thinking which is why they suppress the function in humans.

All the clues over time were hidden in plain sight using double meanings. Art, literature, Stone-work.

All the power structures were their power structures including the churches. Rules you must Obey and Hierarchies. That shows you archonic influence.

The Laws of Commerce are Their Rules, a mirror of celestial law.

They Hate Us because we can change our minds and break rules at a whim.

This is why people are so conditioned to keep obeying rules. That is their only real control. Psychological conditioning of behaviours which inhibit free-will and free-thinking.

It is why Klaus Recommended the Chinese method of social control for the entire world. He said it was The EXAMPLE...so silly he doesn't even know who runs his numbers.

All the dumb asses who think they rule the world...are just serving their Archons higher agenda who con them with ease by offering power over others.

They ran the reincarnation system. You know the one where they tell you that you made mistakes and needs to make amends for them...then they wipe your memory so you make those same mistakes over again.

They play us for suckers...and most dance to their tune.

This is their reality, yet we provide the energy to manifest it.

This makes it our reality...if people can be shown how it works enough to understand.

This requires real people doing real alterations of reality in public. That is what snaps their hold over people.

This is what I teach, or try to teach as the case may be.
