No, not correct. I suggest you stop talking and study the situation a lil further before you comment on it like you know a god damn thing..

Money is their game you fucking idiots.lol

Re: The most striking thing about the Anomaly is his sadness

Donations would imply that he's beholden to donors. Wealth extraction from the financial markets through knowledge of the sacred science ensures that he can become the wealthiest person alive and be beholden to none

Quoting: Anonymous Coward 78993940

I was thinking hard about the downsides of the donation thing. I knew someone who donated 1500USD to me in 2015, and acted like I was his goddamn pet. lol. Very demeaning.

So yes, there are better ways. And its best to be beholden to no one, as you say.

~O~

How do you extract wealth from the financial markets?

Step one is intending the loosh/wealth-energy to come back to your using raw willpower, right?

The markets are just stolen dream energy, anyway, right?

But what is step two?

You build the wealth energy around you, and then wait until it manifests in the physical, via business luck? I already have channels that are starting to work.

Or is there a more direct way, using lawful money, precious metals and USC411?

Interesting subject. Maybe we can start a thread if this one gets nuked.

Quoting: Daozen

Of course, people don't give things away for nothing, they always want something in return, especially when it comes to money.

But no, it has nothing to do with loosh or magick, just plain old years of studying price action, technical analysis, and combining that with the law of vibration and financial astrology.

I don't know of any other means to accomplish this besides years of studying and hard work. Having knowledge of sacred science just makes your chances of accomplishing your goals more likely

This anomaly shit is retarded. To be fair I never have any idea what y'all are talking about except for the feeling like whoever posts about the anomaly think THEY are the anomaly. Anyone care to elaborate or is my hunch correct

I don't appreciate the moniker.

I have never had a tattoo. No abortions. Have never allowed drugs like marijuana in my body. Never seen movies like Star Wars, Lord of the Rings, Harry Potter or even Narnia.

I light a menorah and have studied eschatology my entire life. Born to hate Windsor.

I would not use the word "chosen" when addressing celestial royalty.

Even Knights are not so disrespectful in my presence.

Quoting: Anonymous Coward 17835662

So why do they call you that? What is the reason for the menorah and why do you mention it? Why did you study that your whole life and at what age did you start?

So what words would you use to describe yourself besides those you have already chosen? Why is there knights in your presence?

Quoting: Anonymous Coward 78993940

Because they know that hell has tried to kill me since birth but I never die. I am indestructible. I can lie cold with no heartbeat. From the time I could read I was engrossed in the Old Testament.

Knights think they are clever. They once moved me onto Rose Briar Street. Some of you will get that.

I would like it to be known that I will give a reward to anyone who returns my Tikva. She was last seen in Colorado Springs in the Briargate area. She is the most athletic pug in world history. Her nasal passage ways were surgically made wider to handle high altitudes and breathe easier.

Less people will be killed if she is returned. Unharmmed.

Knights in your presence and all of these things makes me think you're a cabalist, and living in Denver metro doesn't really help your case. I'm not judging you I'm just interested in your origins. I read about the wos for years but always assumed another psyop

Re: The most striking thing about the Anomaly is his sadness

Knights guard me just as the angels do.

Describe myself? Knights tell me I am bat shit crazy. I literally swim with sharks and have jumped out a plane at 10K up. If you knew you could not die wouldn't you enjoy doing extreme bat shit crazy things? I enjoy ultra fast rides on motorcycles. Going 120 mph with no seat belt. In high school my dad bought me a newer Camaro and for fun I raced idiots on the back roads who thought they could beat me. I enjoy adrenaline. A lot. Normal bores me quickly. Before the Camaro I totaled my first Chevy and flipped it onto it's hood. I walked away unscathed. My dad was pissed because I refused to go to the hospital. Why? Not like I ever die anyways. Fun times.

The most terrifying enemy is the one who is not afraid to die.

I would describe you the same way from our interactions but you're way over the top. I also don't fear death but am averse to pain and unnecessary risk. You're definitely an interesting woman I must say....

One wonders how much a geriatric Templar has told his fellow knights.

Aye. Unusual and a thrill seeker I am. Bored easily and love high risk situations. I make Tom Cruise look like a toddler. I'm sure word got around quickly that I took photos with an NFL teams playbooks DURING a live broadcast. Undetected. As usual.

Most of the knights sent in to babysit me can not handle me. Even a Navy Seal knight couldn't.

I destroy every knight sent in to guard me.

Amateurs.

You're definitely an intimidating woman, I can see why. It sounds like a headache just trying to keep up with you.

What is your plan?

Quoting: Anonymous Coward 78993940

Men have told me numerous times that I can be intimidating. They have no clue what I am capable of. For fun my cousin used to chase me around the kitchen with a butcher knife. I'm not your usual maiden in distress.

My plan is to kill the midget who exposed my existence to the world. I knew Templars had been looking for me. Well congrats. The assholes found me.

Anomaly is sad because all he will be remembered for is being a pathetic LARP on GLP.

Those who are slaves to Saturn can't seem to understand that money isn't needed.

isn't needed for what?

Survival?

Do you live without it?

Quoting: Anonymous Coward 78993940

Isn't needed to change this world. See any that have done it? Nope..pretty sure they fuck it up more.

I think this is more about just changing the world. I think this is about removing the cabal from power, which has never been done before.

It's true that money is only one path.

You can free the world by directly redeploying from the dark-star cores, in dreamtime.

I've had two adepts frustratedly tell me Earth can be freed "In one second" if the right people truly fired the correct synapses.
