Re: How many things do Mormons have wrong about Christianity?

They have a better form of Christianity with better views of life after death and working together to help each other and their communities, and not making Jesus into a god.

Re: How many things do Mormons have wrong about Christianity?

Or how many do they have right?

Quoting: Anonymous Coward 79631146

they do not understand the forgiveness of Christ. I was born and raised in it. Fully lived it.

they are very proud about their "works". They just don't get it and trying to talk to them about it falls on deaf ears.

they want to be able to judge others because it raises them up, yet they do not understand this either. Anyone still supporting their "prophet" is self deluded. it's ok though, it will crack down the middle soon enough and the members will tilt their heads to the side and wonder WTH is going on?

they will be broken down like everyone else. Their glass house will be shattered, but that is how God works. Alot of great people in that Church but appearance is very important to them. Wealth is very important to them. Humility is coming.

I was accosted on the street and lectured by a couple of them. What they were saying sounded very cultish.

Re: How many things do Mormons have wrong about Christianity?

Firstly, THERE'S NO NEED FOR ANOTHER CONTRADICTION AND COMPLETELY SELF SERVING 'TESTAMENT' OF JESUS CHRIST.

The MASONIC LDS FOUNDER WROTE IT AS AN EXCUSE TO BE POLYGAMOUS.

... have all been courteous, well-mannered and kind young people.

In my book, that counts for a LOT.

They are well aware they have issues in their church. There are many, for example, who are against Brigham Young, and have even been excommunicated for it.

Catholics have mainly been alright to me...

Prozzie Christians, by contrast, can sometimes be cold, self-righteous and downright haughty.

God looks into the Heart... your respect, your manners, your daily deeds. Ideology is of secondary, if not Tertiary importance... cos we're all BLIND AS BATS down here.
