It's because they only do the very best drugs .

I've been thinking about that, and seeing it in the aethers, for a long time.

What gives them their advantage?

- 1) Glandular products derived from humans, which lets them soar in the aethers.
- 2) DMT extracts, which humans are too lazy to synthesize on a large scale.
- 3) Enhanced neurophone like devices which lets them travel in the astral. If the neurophone is public for twenty years, go figure what they have in private.

Paths two and three are completely achievable and non-harmful.

Went out for Xmas day yesterday. I better study hard today.

It seems hopeless. They play an odd game of chess for sure, I just think we don't know how to play the game.
