Odin gave up his eye to drink from this Well. I gave up an ear to drink from it.

Did you know that when Max Planck invented Quantum Theory, he was staying on the island where the Well was located?

What Island was that?

Heligoland.

One critique: you mentioned in one of your posts that the Roy G. Biv color scale went from lowest to highest frequency, or something to that effect. This is a lie, that has been inculcated for decades with the true nature of color covered up. Goethe, in his work on natural sciences, shows the true manner in which colors descend from the highest frequency (white), splitting into yellow and blue, and then the next layer forms a green in the middle with purple and red and orange on the outsides.

Re: Odin's Well of Wisdom was destroyed by England in 1947

After the Aesir of Earth lost the Aesir vs Vanir war to the Vanir(Elohim) of Sirius, the Vanir of Sirius demanded a prisoner exchange.

The Vanir sent Njord(Moloch/Sin Allah) and his children Frey(Shamash) and Freya(Ishtar/Inanna) to rule over Asgard.

Although Asgard was allowed to keep Odin as their king for a time, Njord had to approve of all of his decisions.

The Aesir were required to send two of their leaders to live with the Vanir. Hoenir, one of the creators of Earth, and a king of the Orion Aryan Elves of Alfheim and his uncle Mimir the wisest of the gods.

The Vanir(Elohim) ended up beheading Mimir for speaking too much truth.

The Messed Up Origins of Mimir, Smartest M...

The Vanir(Elohim) who currently rule Earth were never fans of those who spoke truth.

That's why they beheaded my brother Mimir.

Another thought: the Jesuit's push for heliocentrism was a way to cover up the true origin of the Northern European people, originally from Hyperborea, a temperate land which still exists today but has been almost completely eliminated from collective history due to people thinking that it is an ice sheet, all due to the heliocentric model.

All water is spirit.

All mind is spirit.

All your memories and knowledge are stored in spirit.

Water holds memory and energy.

Part of why the human body needs have such a high water content to handle human consciousness.

I'm not sure if I can explain it exactly at this time.

From 1945 to 1952 the uninhabited islands fell within the British Occupation zone and were used as a bombing range. On 18 April 1947, the Royal Navy detonated 6,700 tonnes of explosives ("Operation Big Bang" or "British Bang") in an attempt to destroy the island entirely and remove it as a fleet base location for Germany. This resulted in one of the biggest single non-nuclear detonations in history.[37][38] The blow shook the main island several miles down to its base, changing its shape (the Mittelland was created).
